- ✓ Coaching
- ✓ Leadership

A simpler solution for selecting and developing the right people.

Identify if a candidate is the right fit for a job based on their behaviors and characteristics, as well as cognitive abilities, with the...	ProfileXT®
With the same data, measure how well a person fits a specific sales job in your organization with the...	Profiles Sales Assessment™
Evaluate compatibility between managers and their employees with the...	Profiles Managerial Fit™
Map out your team's characteristics to understand their similarities and differences with the...	ProfileXT® Team Report
Evaluate an individual's approach to leadership and development with the...	Leadership Approach Report
Generate all-inclusive reports or schedule additional assessments through your own...	Global Assessment Center

How Does it Work?

Instead of paying for multiple selection and development tools, utilize the rich data from ProfileXT® to not only help select and hire the right people for your organization, but effectively develop and coach them throughout their career with all-inclusive reports. This all-in-one approach to ProfileXT® also includes complimentary access to your own online Assessment Center. You, your hiring managers, and team leaders can run these extra reports at the click of a button without any extra cost or time commitment. Convert a Profiles Sales Assessment™ to a ProfileXT® (or vice versa), or create new Team Reports, look at manager/employee fit, and evaluate team members' approach to leadership, all at no additional charge. Now, you can make hiring and developing the right people in your organization a lot simpler with this new all-inclusive solution.
